My Role Models

Angelina Jolie is my role model because she is a caring person and she doesn't give up on what she believes that could be done. She doesn't let anything or anyone bring her down.

Carley Redpath is my role model because she believes that she can accomplish things by putting a lot of effort.

What I believe

I believe that I can achieve in something that I want just by trying my very best and not giving up.

I believe that it's better to try than to give up on something important

I believe that I can be someone in life.

The reason I believe all of this is because I know that I will achieve this things if i try my hardest and anybody else ca do it as well if they just put a lot of effort into it.

My Principles

- Love people for who they are
- Care for people around me
- Appreciate the family and friends I have
- Believe in myself
- Never give up
- Never lose Faith in God

My Motto

You called me upon the Water the Great unknown where my feet may fail

Spirit lead me where my trust is without borders

This is my motto because I got this from a song called Oceans and what it means to me is that God is calling me to follow his footsteps and to never give up and that I will get through things without any problems.

Mission Statement in 10 minutes

My beliefs are that I will accomplish great things in High School. For example: getting good grades and a good GPA.

The way I will accomplish these are by putting a lot of effort into my work and never to give up.

Academic Goals

- Get good grades in High School
- Graduate with a Good GPA

The way I plan to reach these two Goals are to study hard, pay close attention in class, as for help if I need to. Another way is to try my hardest at every subject even if I don't like a subject I will try my hardest. Last I will stay for tutoring if I realize that I need help in order to pass a class and get a good grade.

Personal Goals

My personal goals are to get good grades in High School and to Graduate with a good GPA. What I would do to reach that Goal is to practice, study hard and ask for help if I need to in order to get to that Goal. I will try to get all the help I need to accomplish these Goals.

Spiritual Goals

- To pray more often
- Pray for people around the world
- Participate on helping the poor/giving out food
- Learn more about the Bible

These are my spiritual Goals because I would love to pray more often and participate in Christian Service on giving out food to the poor and helping out people who need the help.

What I want in a future Partner

What I want in a future partner is for that person to be kind, smart, believes that they will achieve something wonderful in life, be respectful, loving, caring, and that never gives up.

These are the things I want in my future partner because it would be better to have a partner with these things than to have one with a bad attitude and that always gives up and never has self-confidence

Accountability Partner

Laneyya would be my partner because she is smart and I know that she will help me reach a goal in my life. She is a good friend and she won't let me down.
